DEPARTMENT OF SERVICE TO PALESTINIAN REFUGEES

About DSPR

The Department of Service to Palestinian Refugees (DSPR) emerged as a group of spirited clergy and lay persons at the start of the Palestinian refugee problem in 1948.

The vision of DSPR is based on Diakonia, the call to serve the poor and oppressed, applied to sustain the efforts of Palestinian refugees to lead dignified lives and to strengthen their communities as essential to the exercise of the right of return.
