

Kumi Action: Share Palestinian Culture and History

We have written short profiles of different aspects of Palestine culture and history and made images with them that you can share on social media. They are available at the link below, which is being shared in chat. Take these profiles and post them, one per day, on social media, or print them out and post them someplace others can see them.

Include a link to this page of the Kumi Now website along with the hashtags #Palestinian, #OurCultureOurHistory, #KumiNow, and #Kumi21.

Urgent Action

If you didn't write emails to the World Council of Churches (WCC) and to the Vatican and Pope Francis last week, we ask that you still do so.

Full instructions are at <https://kuminow.com/week-20-the-ongoing-nakba-online-gathering/>.

Please include a link to the Kairos Palestine statement at <https://www.kairospalestine.ps/images/kairos-palestine-call-for-world-solidarity.pdf>

Urgent Action

You might start your letter with...

To Whom It May Concern,

I write as part of the Kumi Now initiative, a group of people from around the world that believes in nonviolent solutions to the conflict in Palestine and Israel. I am deeply troubled and saddened by the ongoing attempts to evict Palestinians from their homes in Sheikh Jarrah and elsewhere, and I'm horrified by the indiscriminate violence in Gaza.

I beg you to implore all churches to preach on these issues this Sunday, May 30th, and call for end to these evictions in Sheikh Jarrah and an justice and peace for the people in Gaza. I am including a link to a statement released by Kairos Palestine. Please read it, share it, and incorporate it into your services.
